

HVAC, Propane Tank, Garbage Receptacle Screening

A single panel screen (wooden) painted white or the home color designed to shield the view of the HVAC from being readily visible from the front street. Two such panel screens would be used if the HVAC is on the corner side of the residence.

